Mobile Training Unit

Revised 06/16/2021

The South Carolina Criminal Justice Academy's Mobile Training Unit is active and prepared to deliver courses in the field. There are NO associated fees for hosting or attending classes taught by the Mobile Training Unit. Classes may be taught as stand-alone or combined to suit the needs of an agency. The Unit is flexible based on each agency's needs and schedule. Each class is already Academy approved and officers will receive the listed CLEE Credit Hours for each class. Class size will vary based on the training site. The attached course catalog lists the current classes offered by the Mobile Training Unit.

The Mobile Training Unit has recently been tasked with administering proficiency tests in the areas of Defensive Tactics and Firearms for Advanced Class III. In addition, for those agencies without a CJA certified Defensive Tactics or Firearms Instructor, they may request the Mobile Training Unit for the practical application of DT and Firearms. Please refer to the Advanced Class III section of this catalog for additional information.

To request training from the Mobile Training Unit please complete the Training Request Form. This form may be found on the SC Criminal Justice Academy's web page (<https://sccja.sc.gov/>) under General Information, subsection Forms. The requests for training should be sent to the Mobile Training Unit at MobileTraining@sccja.sc.gov.

Advanced Class III

The SCCJA Mobile Training Unit is responsible for the proficiency testing of Firearms and Defensive Tactics for Advanced Class 3. Candidates will first view the training via ACADIS; the agency Firearms and Defensive Tactics Instructors will then provide practical application of viewed training. The Mobile Training Unit will arrange training sites to conduct both the Firearms and Defensive Tactics testing for Advanced Class 3 Officers. To serve the greatest numbers both timely and efficiently, dates and locations will be announced and registration for these sessions will be opened in ACADIS.

If an agency does not have an Academy certified Defensive Tactics or Firearms Instructor, they may request Mobile Training provide the practical application of viewed training. Candidates must have watched the proficiency training in ACADIS prior to the Mobile Training Instructors arriving. If requested for practical application training, the Defensive Tactics training and testing will be provided the same day; Firearms training and testing will be two and half days. Requests to schedule practical application training and testing may be made by completing the Mobile Training Request Form and emailing to MobileTraining@sccja.sc.gov.

Advanced Class 3 candidates must successfully pass both the Defensive Tactics and Firearms Proficiency tests before they can be registered to take the cumulative test.

Proficiency Retests, Remedial, and Failures

Defensive Tactics:

Students will receive one (1) retest the same day. Should they fail and need to retest, they will be given an opportunity to remediate first. Should the student fail the retest they will be given a failure notification and have to wait 30 days before they can be registered for a second attempt.

Firearms Proficiency:

Students will receive two (2) opportunities to qualify the same day. Should they fail and need to retest, they will be given an opportunity to remediate first. Should the student fail all attempts they will be given a failure notification and have to wait 30 days before they can be registered for a second attempt.

Second Attempts:

If a recycled failure student returns and fails either of the above proficiencies, it constitutes as a second failure which prohibits them from taking the Advanced Class 3 Cumulative Test and they must wait one (1) year (from the date of the second failure) before they can return.
